

Skills and Content covered in PLC Curriculum

	1st Semester Ethical Leadership (1810)	2nd Semester Community Leadership (1820)	3rd Semester Multilevel Leadership (2810)	4th Semester Global Leadership (3080)	5th Semester Leadership Capstone (4000)
SKILL SET
1. Writing	Incisive writing	Theoretical writing	Persuasive writing	Strategic writing	Grants or proposals for launching innovative plans
2. Speaking	Clear & concise oratory	Motivational oratory	Fluent in field of study	Appeal to broad audiences	Stunning oratory.
3. Group Process	Awareness of group process	Match frameworks to situation	Effectively lead with multicultural behaviors	Multidisciplinary groups solve policy problems	Independently build teams and elevating in groups
4. Critical Thinking	Methods for: Analyzing the self and others. Avoiding common errors of intuition.	Critique: Theoretical errors, correlational design, clinical trails, appropriate inference from data	Critique: Unidimensional or dichotomous analyses. Generate: methods for creative solutions	Generate: Multidimensional analyses. Integrative interventions	Generate: Thorough & creative diagnoses. Incisive interventions. Design outcome studies
5. Applied Statistics	Graphing existing data & practical significance.	Central tendency, dispersion, correlation, t-tests.	Generate testable hypotheses & design metrics	Analysis of national datasets to inform policy decisions.	Conduct projections and inferential analyses from self-generated datasets.
6. Information Literacy	Strong peer reviewed sources	Comprehensive reviews covering full quantitative progression.	Generate information in the absence of existing data	Government agencies, federal branches, & think tanks	Build community contacts and conduct original data collection.
CONTENT
1. Leadership	Definitions & theory	Prevalence & types of leadership problems	Targeted prevalence analyses & systemic thinking	Prevalence of global problems & incisive policy solutions	Execution of real leadership intervention
2. Policy	Leader influence on groups	Group influence on policy	Targeted policy	International policy. Policy implementation.	Exercise real influence on policy issue
3. Self	Abilities and morals	Mitigating weaknesses	Work/Family/Life balance	Global citizenship	Power of the self to lead
4. Others	Engage others with social skill & potency.	Elevating others in one-on-one or group situations.	Proactively engage and build respect with diverse others.	Concrete skills for forming & maintaining global relationships.	Challenge, critique, and build strength in others
5. Society	Ethical policy decisions	Routes to influence & power	Diversity in society	International societies	Affect change in society